D&D Ingredients Celebrates 50 Years of Quality, Growth and Partnership in Animal Nutrition

Founded in 1976, the Delphos, Ohio-based company marks a half-century of service to agriculture

DELPHOS, Ohio — May 6th, 2026 — D&D Ingredients, a leading manufacturer and ingredient distributor serving the animal feed and pet food industries, announces its 50th anniversary. Founded in 1976 by Doc and Dorothy Miller, the company has grown into a full-service operation serving customers across 45 states and 42 countries.

“In 2026, D&D Ingredients marks 50 years of innovation, collaboration and dedication to the animal nutrition industry,” said Kristopher DiTommaso, General Manager of D&D Ingredients. “This milestone celebrates everything the D&D team built together with our partners—and the opportunities ahead as we continue helping our customers succeed in business.”

Today, D&D Ingredients employs 160 people and operates more than 500,000 square feet of warehouse space. The company’s service portfolio spans premixing, blending, custom grinding, co-packing, transloading, thermal heat treatment and distribution, with an ingredient inventory of more than 900 items and a dedicated trucking fleet ensuring reliable delivery across its customer network. Feed safety and quality management systems are audited by third-party certification bodies, and D&D Ingredients maintains 12 trained PCQIs onsite.

In 2021, D&D Ingredients joined the Swanson Family of Companies, bringing new investment and forward momentum while preserving the culture and partnerships that have defined the company since its founding.

As D&D Ingredients looks ahead, continued investment in rail capacity, warehouse expansion and inventory management technology remains a priority. The company’s mission remains unchanged: to provide quality ingredients and best-in-class manufacturing services that animal nutrition companies’ trust, nutritionists rely on and employees take pride in delivering.

D&D Ingredients is celebrating its 50th anniversary with events and recognition planned throughout 2026. For more information, visit ddingredient.com or call 1-800-543-7962 or email info@ddingredient.com.
